SUMMER CAMP 2012

January 2012

Dear Parents and Cubs,

For our Cub Scout Summer Camp 2012, Tuesday Cubs are proposing to join 2,500 other cubs from around Ireland at JAMOIGE 2012.

It is taking place from Friday 1st June until Monday 4th June (June Bank Holiday weekend) at Ardgillan Castle, North County Dublin (between Balbriggan and Skerries).

Jamoige is a jamboree arranged by the National Events Committee of Scouting Ireland specifically for Cubs and takes place once every three years and this year's jamboree is based on the theme of Gulliver's Travels.

At this stage, we estimate that the overall cost per Cub (including a participant fee of €60) will be €120 to include all food, transport, activities, badges etc.

If you wish to come on this year's Tuesday Cub Scout Summer Camp, please give a (non refundable) deposit of €20 to Tara or Louisa by 31st January so that we can pay the necessary deposit to Scouting Ireland.

In order to assist parents in spreading the cost over the next few months we are proposing a payment of €25 would then be made at the end of February, March, April and May. We are also looking at the possibility of fundraising to try and reduce the cost.

You can find out more details of Jamoige on www.scouts.ie or if you have any question please contact Louisa at 087-2333426 after 7pm

Yours in Scouting,

Louisa, Tara, Dave, Pete, Keith, Joanne, Ann Marie, Clare
